BLOXHAM COUNTY BILL HAS PASSED THE HOUSE

The Star received last night the following dispatch:

Tallahassee, May 6.—The Bloxham county bill passed the house late this afternoon, by a vote of 45 to 20. Representatives Crosby and Henderson made a strong fight against it.

L. W. Duval.

This probably means that, unless Senator Terrel can stop the bill in the Senate, the new county will be formed and almost a quarter of the best portion of Marion lost to us.

The Star expects very little of the referendum clause in the bill, requiring three-fifths of the people in the territory to vote for division before the new county can be formed. Marion has many staunch friends in the districts yet belonging to our county. But the people around Williston and the other parts of Levy affected are almost solid for the new county.

If the proposition of division had been able to stand on its own merits, it would not have gone very far in the House. This year, however, there is a bunch of districts desiring to split off from their counties and form counties of their own. This has led to reciprocity among the representatives of the said districts, each helping the others, and enabling advocates of county division in almost every instance to secure a majority. As to whether the same rule will prevail in the Senate, it is impossible to forecast. We have no doubt that Senator Terrel will do his full duty, but as to how much help he will have is another matter.

TO PREVENT TIPPING

A dispatch from Tallahassee says: "Within the next few days it is expected that Representative Robert Anderson, of Escambia, will introduce in the House a measure directed against the practice of tipping in the state of Florida. Representative Anderson is being urged by many to father such a bill, and he is seriously considering introducing one within the next week. Mr. Anderson thinks that Florida should adopt the policy of Mississippi and other states in this connection. He thinks the tipping system a nuisance (as do many of the traveling public), and if he introduces the bill he will fight hard for its passage."

Of all the silly things that a legislative body can do, one of the silliest would be to waste its time on such a bill. It is one of a man's inalienable rights to give money for service whenever he sees fit, and a man who hasn't backbone enough to resist imposition should stay at home with his guardians.

The Ocala Star demands a curfew law because "some boys from the best homes" will rush into lawless ways. But why not punish these bad boys even when they come from good homes? Why make their lawlessness an excuse for making life unpleasant to those who neither run off with autos nor appropriate the property of others? Why punish the innocent for the guilty? Why not demand that officials do their duty in arresting even the sons of prominent people who violate the law?—Times-Union.

Why ask the Star? It has never advocated excusing bad boys from good homes or punishing the innocent for the guilty, and it has always demanded that public officers do their duty without fear or favor. The Star has never been stuck on curfew laws, but when the average American citizen is becoming so boneless that he has to have the legislature protect him against exorbitant Pullman car and hotel porters, it isn't to be supposed that he has nerve enough to control his own children. And really the Star can't see that it is any special punishment to require a good boy or girl to be at home at a reasonable hour in the evening.

Say what you please about Ceph Wilson of Marianna, but he is certainly of gubernatorial calibre. Knott, however, has the "inside track" of all the other candidates for governor, and the voters are sure to put an O before the K in his name.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Okay him, instead of cross him.

Mutt and Jeff must be dead.—Jasper News.

We hope so.—Ocala Star.

Amen!—Columbia State.

Let the funeral proceed.—Tampa Tribune.

Good taste is not universal, but it is more widely diffused than we hoped.

We have known for some time that Gilbert D. Leach, now of the Leesburg Commercial, was smart and good-looking; now, we see by her picture in the Eustis Lake Region that Mrs. Leach looks smart and is very pretty.

ONE OF OCALA'S BEST ASSETS

The Times-Union Short Talks, always prompt to encourage, says: "The Ocala Evening Star, which has long been one of Ocala's best assets, has begun to use the afternoon service furnished by the Associated Press. This will give the Star readers the best and most reliable news that can be had by any afternoon newspaper, and will put it in a class with the very best of its kind. Mentioning the fact on Monday, when the service began, the Star very modestly claims to have done what it could to improve and offer the readers the best that it can get. "The Star is the only paper in this territory that takes press dispatches," says the editor, "and one of four evening papers in the state that takes the Associated Press." Ocala should be pleased to see this mark of progress and give good support to the Star on account of the enterprise shown."

The Ocala Star is to be congratulated on being elected to membership in the Associated Press, and being thus able to give its readers the benefit of the service of this great news-gathering organization. The Evening Telegram values its membership in the Associated Press very highly and considers that any daily paper that is unable to secure this service operates at a very serious disadvantage. But, of course, there are always the scissiors, if a paper doesn't mind being a day or two behind with the news and can fool its readers.—Lakeland Telegram.

A newspaper can't fool its readers these days. They watch the news too closely and know what is fresh as far as they can see it.

SOME FORMS OF RHEUMATISM CURABLE

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: acute and chronic rheumatism, rheumatic headaches, sciatic rheumatism and lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially rheumatic pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." Get a 25c. bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency.—Adv.
